Kayla & the Candy

Kayla's mother said,
"Come right home after school."
But Kayla came home late.
She wouldn't tell her mother
where she had been.
Mother sent Kayla to her room.
Mother said, "You may come out
when you want to tell me where you were."

Kayla felt sad in her room.
She came out and told her mother,
"I went with Devin to get some candy."

Mother said to Kayla, "I love you.
I want to know that you are always safe.
Next time, please come right home."

Kayla said, "Yes, I will."
Then Kayla and Mother were happy again.

1. Kayla did did not obey her mother.
2. Mother wanted to know where Kayla was because Mother was mean to cared about Kayla.
3. Kayla felt happy sad in her room.
4. Kayla wanted to obey and be happy sad again.

Directions: Read the story and complete the sentences. Think about the second sentence. How do you know Kayla's mother cared for her? Think about why God wanted Kayla to obey her mother. Do you think it is because parents usually know what is best?
