

KRAZY KAPERS

Ask your partner for words to fill in the blank spaces of one of the "Krazy Kapers." Then let your partner read the kaper. Then trade roles and do the other kaper.

Flash Facts

Crucifixion was one of the most horrible punishments known to man. It was so cruel that it was almost never done to Roman citizens. Only slaves and terrible criminals were crucified.

Read Philipians 2:8-11 to find out who else was crucified and why.

My name is _____ . I am on the _____ name of animal baseball team. Our game was on Monday at _____ _____ . It was a _____ weather tied at _____ number runs. In the last game I had hit _____ number home runs. Now we had a runner on first base. Then the batter before me struck out! I wanted to hit the ball to _____ . But the coach told me to sacrifice!
 Me—the best hitter on the team—sacrifice?
 I felt _____ . I hit a _____ number-foot bunt toward third base. The third-base man picked up the ball but threw it into _____ . Meanwhile the guy on first base ran all the way to home. The crowds _____ ! The coach said I did a great job and took us all out for _____ food and _____ drink in a _____ vehicle.

Yesterday I woke up in my _____ furniture with _____ adjective allergies. I sounded like a _____ animal . My eyes watered and my skin got puffy with _____ color spots. My friends all thought that I was _____ . My mother took me to the doctor. The doctor said I had a virus and the _____ adjective temperature was _____ , and my doctor said I couldn't eat broccoli, squash or _____ color _____ food anymore. But I could eat pizza and _____ candy and eggplant all the time. Then the doctor asked if I had a cat. I said, "Yes, my cat likes to _____ ."
 The doctor said I would have to sacrifice and give my cat away. I felt _____ . But I gave my cat to my friend _____ . My friend was very happy. My mother said that I could have a _____ color _____ name of dinosaur instead.

