

Puppet Script

Scary Storm!

(Note: Play both parts, changing your voice for the puppet. Or you may have a helper play one of the parts.)

Daffodil: (Enters and looks around before speaking in a whisper.) Did you hear the storm last night?

Leader: Storm?

Daffodil: Yeah. There was thunder and lightning and wind that went “ooo.”

Leader: Hmm. I guess I missed it. I must have been sleeping.

Daffodil: I wasn't! I heard it all at my nest by the pond. It was scary!

Leader: It would be scary to be outside in a storm. What happened?

Daffodil: Well, there was a big flash of light. Then a big, loud BOOM!

Leader: That sounds like lightning and thunder.

Daffodil: Yep. I jumped up and ran into the bushes.

Leader: The bushes! Why did you go there?

Daffodil: I was scared!

Leader: Are the bushes safer than your nest?

Daffodil: I don't think so. It was scarier in the bushes. And the wind started to blow. It went “ooo, ooo.” Then rain started to fall.

Leader: Where was your mom?

Daffodil: She was by the nest, looking for me! She told me to come back to the nest where it was safe and dry.

Leader: So did you go?

Daffodil: Yep. Even though I got scared, I know I can always trust my mom!

Leader: That's good!

Daffodil: I crawled under my mom's wing. That's what little ducks like me are SUPPOSED to do in storms. My mom's wing is big and strong and safe and dry. Is your mom's wing like that, too?

Leader: My mom doesn't have a wing. She is a person, not a duck. But she can give good hugs!

Daffodil: Oh, hugs are nice!

Leader: Yes, they are! They help when we feel scared. I know that my mom loves and cares for me.

Daffodil: And my mom loves and cares for me, too!

Leader: (To children.) And someone else loves and cares for all of us, no matter what happens. Do you know who that someone is? (Pauses for children to respond “God!”)

Daffodil: I think the boys and girls are really smart!

Leader: I think so, too!
