

Puppet Script

Winter • Lesson 5

Squirrel School

(Note: Play both parts, changing your voice for the puppet.
Or you may have a helper play one of the parts.)

Skitter: Hi, hi, hi, everybody!

Leader: Hi, Skitter! How's life at the park?

Skitter: It's great, great, great! Do you know the big, exciting, amazing news?

Leader: Big, exciting AND amazing? No, I haven't heard the big, exciting and amazing news. Will you tell us?

Skitter: Yes, yes, yes! I'm so, so, so excited because Uncle Scamper has come to visit, and, and, and he is going to teach me and all my friends how to be the best squirrels ever!

Leader: Wow! Is that your uncle who has traveled all over the place teaching squirrels how to find the best food, hide it in the best places and always be able to find it again?

Skitter: Yep, yep, yep. That's him!

Leader: And isn't he the one who can leap from tree to tree and never fall?

Skitter: Yes, yes, yes! And he promised to help me learn all his tricks! He said all I have to do is watch, listen and learn.

Leader: Great! What is he going to teach you first?

Skitter: Well, he already started teaching me! The first lesson was Squirrel Safety 101.

Leader: What did you learn in that lesson?

Skitter: I'll show you! Pretend that this is the tree hole I live in. (Motions to area in front of him.)

Leader: Okay.

Skitter: When you want to leave your house, you go to the edge of the hole and (Stops and looks one way and then the other and then up and down.) when you know that nothing is there, you—(Jumps to the side quickly, looks around and then scampers behind LEADER.)

Leader: Wow! Skitter, you moved really fast. (Pauses.) Where did you go, anyway?

Skitter: (Returns.) I'm right here. Uncle Scamper taught me some good stuff, huh?

Leader: Yes, he did. When is your next lesson?

Skitter: Right after lunch! I like learning new things, don't you?

Leader: Yes, I do. In fact, we have been talking in our class today about how God helps us learn and grow.

Skitter: Really, really, really?

Leader: Really. We can all learn more about God every day.

Skitter: That's great! Well, I have to go! Bye, bye, bye!
